

Gladden us with holy joys, almighty God, and make us rejoice with devout thanksgiving, for the Ascension of Christ your Son is our exaltation, and, where the Head has gone before in glory, the Body is called to follow in hope. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SBSBNRs: Let's Talk

Spiritual But Not Religious?
Let's talk about it.
Tuesday
June 3, 7pm
Bradican Room

Dear Good People of Saint Bernadette,

This past week, after spending a week at my home parish in Kansas for my brother Bob's ordination celebration, I have had time for a thoughtful reflection of community and its value.

Being home was a powerful experience of community and memory. Wea, Kansas is a very small farming community, though it is growing quickly with development as the city comes closer and closer. Many of the families that were there 50 years ago are still there, most of the parishioners of my parents' generation are gone. My contemporaries are, many of them, still going to church at Queen of the Holy Rosary church.

I think the sense of community, of putting down roots, family and familiar faces that I rediscovered in Wea is what our parish families largely are missing today. We live in such a transitional culture unrooted in place that we have to work with intentionality to create the place where we feel deep belonging, where we know we can always return and feel at home.

I think this unrootedness is something that influences the crisis of unbelonging that we see in all religions today. If religion is truly the ritual expression of spirituality, that ritual has to take place in a context where all feel at home and valued. I don't think this necessarily describes the world we live in today. Things happen in isolation in a virtual unreality and replace rootedness and commitment. I wonder what a community without real origins will look like in maturity. We're starting to see it.

To have memories – especially communal memories – requires people to take time and make many attempts at showing up and creating them. Only after many experiences does something become familiar. "Familiar," in the sense of "like family," to whom we belong.

My family put down roots that have lasted even though we have been there only occasionally in recent years, and we made a difference. It was my dad's vision to replace the old Catholic school that had been closed and unsafe for years (except for the gym), even though the pastor at the time didn't care for the idea. Dad planned and promoted it, putting in endless hours, and ultimately oversaw the construction of a new school that today is still growing and expanding.

When I was in high school Fr. Brink asked me to design a coat of arms for the parish and paint a double-sided sign for the front lawn of the church. It is still there today when you come to church.

We always visit the graves of Mom and Dad in the cemetery behind the church when we are there.

As I said last week, it is uncommon for three brothers to be priests, but I think Wea had a lot to do with it. It was the community. We were the family who always stayed to the end and put away the chairs and tables when events ended.

Is it possible that a vocation might be a calling heard through your community? Certainly, a vocation needs a context where you can imagine yourself serving, hopefully with satisfaction making an impact on that community who shares your life and supports you.

Community is a precious thing, and we need to work at building it every day. Blessings follow.

The Lord be with you. Fr. Dom

Shakespeare Festival: a theatrical competition

Middle school students from Saint Bernadette Catholic School proudly performed a shortened version of Shakespeare's Dynamic Duos at the Arlington Diocesan Shakespeare Festival on Tuesday, May 20. The competition was held at Bishop Ireton High School with additional performances for their fellow classmates and parents on May 22.

This year's production was the largest in many years, with 42 middle school students participating as actors or stage crew. Rehearsals started in February, with students from 6th, 7th, and 8th grades committing to twice-weekly after-school practices. Months of dedication was worth it as every scene brought Shakespeare's timeless characters to life with humor, heart, and dramatic flair.

Shakespeare's Dynamic Duos spotlighted scenes from Macbeth, Hamlet, Much Ado About Nothing, Twelfth Night, and A Midsummer Night's Dream. The production explored some of Shakespeare's most memorable pairings—from the deadly ambition of Macbeth and Lady Macbeth, to the tragic love of Hamlet and Ophelia, the witty sparring of Beatrice and Benedick, the comedy mix-ups of Viola and Sir Toby, and the whimsical magic of fairies in A Midsummer Night's Dream.

Saint Bernadette Catholic School has a proud and longstanding tradition of participating in the Diocesan Shakespeare Festival—an annual celebration of student talent that has featured middle school performers from across the Arlington Diocese for over 25 years. We have been part of this cherished event since the very beginning.

A heartfelt congratulations to all our students on a job well done. Special thanks to our director, Ms. Laurie Candolor; assistant director, Ms. Amy O'Connell; and all the backstage helpers who made this production possible.
