

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

from the pastor

Dear Good People of Saint Bernadette,

You might think that Christmas or Easter might be the busiest times of the year for the parish. They are busy, for sure, especially when you think of all the confessions leading up to them and preparations of the church and liturgies.

But this year, I think the last two weeks have been the busiest of all. It was an unusual confluence of the end of the school year, graduation, and Pentecost that formed the backdrop of end-of-the-year activities for nearly every parish ministry or group. I was double or triple booked most evenings and I apologize that I couldn't get to everything. It wasn't possible.

But it has also left me with so many thoughts and things to write about that I'm wondering where to start.

First of all, the school. The end of the year, with its many traditions and a lot of fun, has been reported each week to you in the bulletin by Dr. Burgess, our principal.

One of the highlights for me was the 7th and 8th grade volleyball tournament. First, 7B beat 7A and then 8B bested 8A. Finally, 7B was victorious over 8B. To be honest, it wasn't the best volleyball people have seen, but the entire school gets to come and cheer, and the kids have the best time. It is perhaps the loudest experience of my entire year (except the Catholic Charities Ball) and it took me nearly a full day to get the ringing out my ears.

I had to give my regrets both to the Knights of Columbus and their annual Grand Knight's dinner and the Capital Wind Symphony concert on Friday night because we had so many parishioners participating in the Together We Rise Against Hunger meal packing event. It was great to be out in the world seeing so many Saint Bernadette people as well as meeting people from other churches, synagogues and mosques.

What brought all of us together was that we packed bags of rice, soy protein, dried vegetables and vitamins, each bag making six servings. We exceeded our goal of 150,000 meals in five shifts Thursday and Friday evenings and Saturday morning. It is a truly profound way to feed the hungry. The bags we filled and the boxes we packed are making their way to the Philippines for a feeding program in elementary schools. In many places of the world kids come to school just to be able to eat. This way they learn and get a much-needed meal.

The Graduation Mass—as well as the Mass the last day of school—and the awards ceremonies that followed told the story of how smart and talented our parish kids are. From the perspective of looking back on all the accomplishment and success of a truly good school year, our gratitude to our amazing faculty, administration, and dedicated parents gave me a great deal of satisfaction for so much work done this year.

And, finally, one of my favorite things is Solemn Vespers on Pentecost night, when the beautifully composed and executed sung prayer gives such a sense of peace and goodwill, and unity, as we bring all of this to a close and move back into Ordinary Time. And, on top of it, we celebrated with Mike Harrison and unveiled his beautiful gift of "The Madonna of the Veil."

We saw Ordinary Time green briefly between the Christmas season and Lent, and now we will be wearing green until November 29! Somehow, I feel like that will be here before we know it.

All of this is to say that these things don't happen by themselves. You are the community who comes together and, using your gifts and talents, make things happen. Imagine any of this without the singers in the choir or the people who prepared all the many receptions over the past few weeks. Thanks to leaders in our brilliant school community, our teachers and admin staff, especially Dr. Burgess. Thanks to our parish staff, especially Rick Caporali who organizes us to make things happen, and David Mathers who makes it beautiful.

Now let's focus on making Ordinary Time Extraordinary! Stay in touch between all the trips and summer fun, and watch for new developments in all areas of parish life.

The Lord be with you.

Fr. Dom

The last days of school

The halls of the are quiet once again, as we observed our final day of the school year on June 10. The last days of the school were truly spent in celebration with many festivities and traditions taking place.

Saint Bernadette students participated in their annual Field Day. Organized by our Physical Education teacher, Mrs. Murphy, and made possible by many helping hands, the day was a huge success. Students spent the morning hours outdoors participating in a variety of games, races, and challenges, while the afternoon featured a volleyball game between eighth grade students and our own Saint Bernadette faculty, with the eighth graders claiming victory.

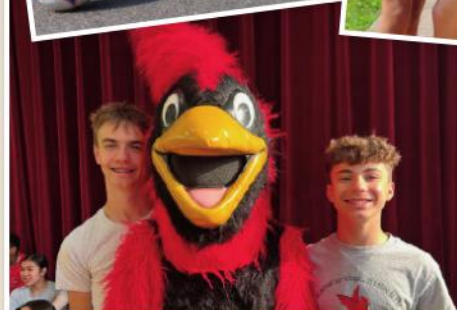

We recognized a transition among the student leadership of our school during the "Pass It On Ceremony." Seventh and eighth grade students stood side-by-side with the community looking onward, as eighth graders handed medals to the seventh graders. These medals are symbols of their new status as the leaders and role models within our school.

On Thursday, June 5, 2025, we honored our eighth graders and their many accomplishments. They gathered together in the morning for a delicious breakfast and signed sweatshirts and yearbooks. Our student body lined the hallways and cheered as these students walked out of the school building as students of Saint Bernadette for the final time. Parents arrived to celebrate the moment as well, decorating their cars with messages of congratulations and best wishes for their children. A beautiful graduation ceremony followed that evening, with awards also being presented at that time.

Our prekindergarten and kindergarten students marked the completion of their programs as well. They treated their families to performances, shared their favorite things about the school year, and answered the question, "what do you want to be when you grow up?" Students in grades one through seven were able to have their classroom parties on Monday, before coming together for the last school Mass of the year. These students also received their awards and recognition for their efforts in an assembly following the liturgy.

We are so blessed and grateful to all students, families, faculty and staff that were dedicated to making this a wonderful school year. We wish all of you a safe, relaxing, and wonderful summer vacation, and look forward to seeing you in August!
